A Weekend Workshop with

SUE TOMPKINS

ASTROLOGER
HOMEOPATH
AUTHOR

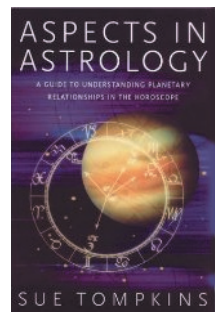

DAY 1 EVERYTHING YOU EVER WANTED TO KNOW ABOUT...CHART INTERPRETATION

Come prepared for an intense day on chart interpretation by the author of Aspects in Astrology, one of CAAE's highly recommended texts.

TOPICS INCLUDE

- ★ Strategies for dealing with challenging casework
- ★ Psychological ideas that every astrologer finds they can't manage without
- ★ How to interpret aspects and aspect patterns
- ★ The importance of 'weighting', a holistic approach in astrological interpretation
- ★ Sue will answer questions by participants

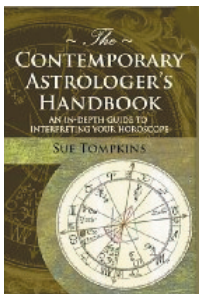

Sue will stimulate, challenge and entertain astrologers of all levels during this in-depth, one-day intensive.

DAY 2 FORECASTING... FOR THE INDIVIDUAL AND FOR THE NATION

Is it the astrologer's job to predict? The aim of Day 2 is to have fun whilst raising important philosophical issues.

Is it our job to make predictions or does it rob clients of their free will? After many years of considering these issues, Sue will navigate us through the fate and freewill minefield and explain what she believes is and is not possible in Forecasting. She will also discuss her favourite techniques—how they work and why.

About Sue Tompkins

Renowned for her down-to-earth, lively and humorous presentations, as well as for her best-selling books Aspects in Astrology and The Contemporary Astrologer's Handbook (both available to purchase in June), Sue is one of the most experienced practitioners and teachers of Astrology in the UK, having seen literally thousands of clients and taught hundreds of students since gaining her Diploma in 1981. She was awarded a Fellowship by the Faculty of Astrological Studies, and the prestigious Charles Harvey Award for exceptional service to Astrology in 2003 by the Astrological Association of Britain. Sue is also a fully qualified and registered Homoeopath.
